

Contents

1

chapter one Customer relationship management demystified	1
What is customer relationship management?	2
The four steps to relationship management	4
What this looks like in an organisation	9
Not just another marketing trick	10
The business case	12

2

chapter two Why do customers defect?	15
Introduction	16
Why are customers lost?	17
Complacency, not competition, kills customers	20
The service economy	21

3

chapter three The economics of customer care	25
Introduction	26
Know what your customers are worth	26
Customer value calculation	27
Building a loyal relationship	29
Exercise: Customer dynamics	33
Customer attrition and retention	34
Exit questionnaires	38
Customer service surveys	38
How to keep a customer for life	39

4

chapter four Defining customer service excellence	41
Nothing impresses like competence	42
A customer service model	43

5

chapter five Achieving service excellence	57
Introduction	58
Exercise: The customer experience	59
The customer interaction cycle	59
Receiving.....	60
Understanding	64
Helping.....	67
Sample worksheet – options and expectations	71
Keeping.....	72
Partner exercise – process mapping	74
Handling challenging situations.....	75

6

chapter six Managing for customer satisfaction	81
Introduction	82
The differences between a traditional manager and a customer-focused manager	83
Checklist	86

7

chapter seven Customer-focused selling and marketing skills	89
Introduction	90
The three principles of customer-focused selling	92
The customer's buying steps	93
Customer-focused prospecting	97
Making a good first impression on first time sales calls	102
Progressing the call	104
Customer-focused selling skills.....	105
Handling objections, queries and concerns	112
The objection handling process	113
Exploring needs	117
High-impact questions	118
Listening	121
Understanding the buying criteria and the customer's buying process	123
Exploring and developing options	125
Proposing and closing	132

8

chapter eight Connecting with customers in the digital age 141

Interactive media marketing.....	142
How are companies striving to win customers over to this new medium?.....	143
Identifying the right data	146
Finding the true worth of a customer.....	151
What is segmentation?	154
Developing a marketing database	156
Loyalty schemes	164

9

chapter nine The ten keys to outstanding customer service..... 169

Introduction	170
1. Whatever it is you do – do it fast	171
2. Positive communications.....	171
3. The personal touch.....	173
4. Keeping customers.....	174
5. Turn complaints into opportunities	174
6. Create ‘moment’s of truth’	176
7. Exceed expectations	177
8. Systems are as important as smiles	178
9. Follow-up and follow through	180
10. Deliver!	181
Define your job in terms of adding value to customers	181

10

chapter ten Worksheets, exercises and action plans 183

Introduction	184
Customer service examples.....	184
Defining excellent customer service	186
Barriers to service excellence	188
Gap analysis	191
How you resolve customer problems	193
Complaints as opportunities	194
Barriers to change	195
Overcoming resistance to change	196
Increasing your customer awareness	197

Estimating lifetime value	198
Complaint resolution	200
Call centre checklist	201
Customer commitment survey	209
Customer feedback analysis	213
Integrating products	215
The integrated product	216
Customer service business plan.....	217
The cost of poor service	223
Customer dynamics	224
Management discussion points.....	226
Sales development discussion points and questions.....	227
Summary	230