

Contents

1

Introduction 1

The cost of credit 5

Introduction6

Cost7

Possible savings related to profit10

Personal knowledge of the cost of credit10

Checklist11

2

The right attitude for credit control 13

Introduction14

Bonuses and commission for staff.....17

Record the progress18

Measure the results19

Checklist21

3

The right credit policies 23

Introduction24

Should you give credit?25

What nominal period of credit is allowed?26

What actual period of credit is allowed?27

What sanctions will you use?.....27

What collection methods will you use?.....28

What is a special case and who decides?30

Is there a dominant customer and if so,
what policies are appropriate?30

Checklist32

4Opening a new account 33

Introduction	34
Application for a credit account	35
Trade references	38
Bank references	41
Credit limits	42
Checklist	43

5Effective paperwork 45

Introduction	46
An objective look	47
Invoices	48
Statements	51
Order forms	52
Checklist	53

6Letters 55

Introduction	56
Standard letters	56
The final warning letter	59
Individually composed letters	62
Checklist	63

7Collection by telephone 65

Introduction	66
The right psychology	67
Preparation for success	68
The telephone call	68
Questions	71
The effective conclusion	72
Keep the history	73
Checklist	74

8

Overcoming excuses 75

Introduction	76
Paperwork	76
Payment systems	78
Customer disputes payment terms that have been agreed	79
Customer will not accept terms that have not been agreed	80
Customer says that he cannot pay now	81
Miscellaneous.....	82
Checklist	85

9

Sources of information 87

Introduction	88
Credit agencies	88
Trade references	88
Bank references	88
Companies House.....	89
Trade sources and your competitors.....	90
Credit insurance	91
In-house opinion.....	91
Your own records	92
Checklist	93

10

Credit Agencies 95

Introduction	96
Choosing the right agency	96
Credit agency charges	97
Failings of credit agencies	97
Reasons for problems	98
Methods of obtaining information	99
When to use credit agencies	99
How to best use a credit agency	100
Details of services available.....	100
Checklist	104

11

Factoring 105

Introduction	106
Non-recourse and recourse factoring	106
Invoice discounting	107
Some of the features of factoring	108
Advantages and disadvantages of factoring	109
Costs	111
Checklist	112

12

Credit insurance 113

Introduction	114
Considering credit insurance	114
Selection of risks to be insured	116
Financial provisions in detail	119
A guide to the cost of credit insurance	119
Working with credit insurance	120
Checklist	121

13

Less usual chasing methods 123

Introduction	124
Personal visits	124
EDI	126
E-mail and fax	127
The use of humour	127
Publicity	128
Stickers	129
Direct debits and standing orders	130
Bank transfers	130
Credit cards	131
Blacklisting	131
Harassment	132
Checklist	133

14

Warning signs – danger imminent 135

Introduction 136
Danger signs 136
Round sum cheques 141
Checklist 142

15

Conditions of sale 143

Introduction 144
The legal position with terms 145
Display of conditions of sale 147
The terms 147
Advice to buyers 148
The main terms affecting credit control 149
Checklist 157

16

Legal action – considerations prior to commencement 159

Introduction 160
Scottish law 160
The significance of retention of title 161
Have other steps been exhausted? 161
Without prejudice offers 163
Should you take legal action? 163
Look at your conditions of sale 165
Statutory interest 166
Who to use 166
Legal services 167
Taking action 169
Checklist 172

17

Legal action – obtaining judgment 175

Introduction176
Selection of route to follow176
Steps to winning judgment179
The claim form in detail182
Footnote – summary judgment187
Checklist188

18

Legal action – enforcing the judgment 189

Introduction190
Enforcing judgment in a county court191
Warrant of execution192
Third party debt order195
Attachment of earnings order196
Charging order198
Appointment of a receiver198
Bankruptcy or winding up199
Order to obtain information199
The register of county court judgments200
The High Court201
Checklist202

19

Winding up, bankruptcy, administration and receivership 203

Introduction204
The threat of winding up and bankruptcy204
Procedures205
Wrongful trading209
The order of priority in the distribution of funds209
Administration210
Receivership212
Licensed insolvency practitioners212
Practical advice213
Checklist214

Bad debts	215
Introduction	216
Get back the VAT	216
Look hard at the conditions of sale	218
Consider enforcing retention of title	220
Personal liability	222
The legal process of liquidation	223
And finally – learn the lessons.....	224
Checklist	225

Exports	227
Introduction	228
The law governing the sale.....	228
Agreement of conditions of sale	228
Methods of payment	230
Documentation	231
Factoring and credit insurance.....	233
Checklist	234

Appendix A: Legislation relating to statutory interest on late payment of debt	235
---	------------

Appendix B: Companies House	239
Companies House addresses	240
Information available	240
Method of identification	241
Methods of obtaining information	241

Appendix C: Court fees payable in connection with legal action to recover debt	243
---	------------

Appendix D: Forms and letters used in this Desktop Guide	247
---	------------

Index	261
--------------	------------