

Contents

INTRODUCTION 1

1

AN INTRODUCTION TO LOBBYING 3

What is lobbying?	4
Where does the word 'lobbying' come from?	5
Lobbying in Washington	5
Lobbying in Britain and Brussels	6
The 'cash-for-questions affair'	7
The Association of Professional Political Consultants	9

2

HOW TO LOBBY 11

The rules of lobbying	12
-----------------------------	----

3

INVOLVING THE MEDIA – THE CASE FOR AND THE CASE AGAINST 18

Media exposure	19
Circumstances to consider before promoting media interest	20
Circumstances where you would be well advised to promote media interest	22

4 WHITEHALL AND WESTMINSTER 24

The senior civil service	25
The power of the Prime Minister and Cabinet Ministers	27
Where does power lie within the executive?	28
Parliament	28
The initiation and formulation of public policy in Britain	30

5 THE DOWNING STREET PRESS OFFICE, THE LOBBY AND THE NATIONAL MEDIA 32

The Downing Street Press Office	33
The lobby	35
The national media	36

6 SCOTLAND, WALES AND NORTHERN IRELAND 38

Scotland	39
Wales	41
Northern Ireland	42

7 THE EUROPEAN UNION AND THE BRUSSELS PRESS CORPS 44

The European Union	45
The Brussels press corps	47
Media targets	49

8

MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS 51

Lobbying and media relations campaigns53

9

THE INTERNET 55

The impact of the Internet on lobbying56

The main political uses of the Internet58

The role of online media in lobbying59

Text messaging60

10

HOW TO WORK WITH JOURNALISTS 61

The basic tools of media relations62

What to avoid when dealing with journalists65

CONCLUSION 69