

Contents

1	The next big thing	1
	The rise of the good corporate Samaritans .....	2
	Corporate community investment (CCI) – it’s a reputation thing .....	2
	One company’s CCI is another’s sales promotion .....	3
2	What is CCI?	4
	CCI is more than just ‘impact on society’ .....	5
	Isn’t that enough? .....	6
	Inside out companies .....	7
	Types of CCI .....	9
3	What is driving the growth in CCI?	25
	Don’t miss out .....	26
	Changing views of business leaders .....	26
	From workers’ villages to a management discipline .....	27
	Public pressure for ‘do right companies’ .....	28
	The public call for action .....	28
	Diana, the millennium and the third way .....	30
	Political encouragement .....	32
	Employee needs and pressures .....	35
	Charities in the boardroom .....	37
	Pressure from the money men .....	39
4	CCI – how far can it take you?	40
	Is being a good corporate citizen going to make everything better? .....	41
	What can CCI do? .....	42
	How much risk can you stand? .....	44
	What your marketing style says about you .....	44
5	The Do Right Model for best practice CCI	47
	Where next? .....	48
	The Blue Peter Principle .....	48
	The Do Right Model .....	50
	Summary checklist for do right companies .....	67
	International CCI roll out .....	68

6	Communications	70
	Shaking the collection bag .....	71
	The big issue .....	72
	What works and what doesn't .....	74
	How successful is CCI PR? .....	76
	Building the perfect CCI PR machine .....	78
	Evaluation of PR activity .....	84
7	CCI case studies – inspiration from three do right companies	86
	Unilever plc .....	87
	Diageo plc .....	90
	McDonald's Restaurants Ltd and the millennium 'our town story' .....	92
	Appendix:
	Bibliography .....	95