

Contents

INTRODUCTION	1
---------------------	----------

1 THE CORPORATE REPUTATION – YOUR MOST VALUABLE ASSET? 3

What makes up your corporate reputation?	4
What impact does your reputation have on your organisation?	5
How can you evaluate your reputation?	6
How can a crisis destroy your reputation? –
The need to communicate in a crisis	8
Case studies	9

2 PRINCIPLES OF GOOD CRISIS COMMUNICATION 11

Good crisis communications strategy	12
Good crisis communications tactics	14
Bad communications	15

3 DEALING WITH THE MEDIA 17

Who are the media and how do they work?	18
What makes a good news story?	19
Handling the media	23

4 CRISIS PLANNING 30

The crisis planning process	31
Developing a plan	33
Conducting a crisis risk audit	33
Creating a Crisis Management Team	35
Developing plans, procedures and a crisis manual	38
Training and implementation	41
Internal communications	42
Working with outside consultants	43

5 WHAT HAPPENS DURING A CRISIS AND GUIDELINES FOR RESPONSE 46

What happens in a crisis? - What is a crisis?	47
Checklist for responding to a crisis	50
Communicating with stakeholders	53

6

ISSUE MANAGEMENT – CRISIS PREVENTION 59

Conducting a risk and issues audit	60
Issue management and handling pressure groups	63

7

REBUILDING AND CONCLUSIONS 66

Rebuilding	67
Conclusions	68

APPENDICIES 69

Appendix I:
‘Calamity Jane PLC’ Pro forma draft outline crisis manual	70
Appendix II:
Training scenarios and exercises	96
Appendix III:
Pro forma crisis booklet for management	105
Appendix IV:
Bibliography and further reading	110
Appendix V:
Resources for more information and assistance	111